I. HEARING

Defendant requested a deferred disposition pursuant to RCW 46.63.070.

II. FINDINGS

Defendant does not have a CDL and has not been granted a deferred disposition on a traffic infraction in the last seven years; Defendant should be granted a deferred disposition on the infractions listed above.

III. ORDER

It is ordered that:

Entry of findings in this matter shall be deferred until one year from the date of this Order or such earlier date as the Court determines in the event of the commission of a new violation.

Defendant shall pay court monitoring costs of $200.00 no later than 30 days from the date of this Order.

The Court shall not extend the time for Defendant to pay court costs or otherwise show compliance with the terms of the Order.

Defendant shall commit no new moving violations of the traffic code during the period of this deferral. Any committed moving infraction shall be considered a new violation for purposes of this Order.

If the Court finds Defendant has violated the Court’s Order, the Court shall find the infraction committed and assess the full penalty provided under IRLJ 6.2(d) less any amounts paid toward the monitoring fee in this matter which shall be allowed as a credit toward the assessed penalty. No refund shall be given.

The Court shall dismiss the above infraction if Defendant complies with all terms of this Order.
